BUSINESS SALE OPPORTUNITY

We are instructed to act on behalf of a company in the print and promotional goods industry, in the disposal of their business.

The opportunity has arisen due to the directors and shareholders looking at a disposal as part of their exit planning strategy. The offering consists of an established business capable of significant income generation without excessive costs. The main features of the opportunity comprise:

- Over 70 years of trading
- Excellent reputation
- An established customer base including some blue chip customers
- Skilled staff
- Growth potential

We believe this represents an extremely attractive proposition which would appeal to both new investors into the market and established companies within the industry looking for an addition to their business.
